

PARC National Prisoner Resource Directory

Dear Readers, February 2022

Welcome to the February 2022 edition of PARC's National Prisoner Resource Directory. We hope this Directory assists you in finding information and contacts that may be useful for you.

Will this year bring an end to the nightmare that is COVID-19? We hope so. There is much to be hopeful for. In California, new legislation became effective in January 2022 revising resentencing rules under the new PC 1170.03 to allow for more lenient sentences for many of the long-term men and women who suffered harsh and draconian sentences in the past. We hope this law is implemented as intended – to release people from prison – and that the trend continues to other states and to the federal system. Applying today's laws to long-timers has the potential to dramatically reduce the US prison population.

This edition has a significant number of updates to addresses and contact information. You may also notice some familiar organizations are now closed. One impact of COVID-19 was the amount of change it precipitated in each of our lives. Movement can be challenging, but it also creates generation of new energy and transformation. Many magazines are now online-only, and printing businesses and magazine vendors do the best they can with ensuring prisoners get subscriptions. Keep copies of all orders, check, money orders and the dates that the order was placed. Give folks extra time; if you don't hear back in over a month, consider writing again, sending a copy of your order. New organizations are added as we learn about them. When you, Reader, become aware of new organizations, let us know! We appreciate your evaluations sharing with us which organizations respond, which ones do not, and which have delays in response. We always check to see if they have the capacity to answer prisoner mail on a regular basis.

Unfortunately, mail restrictions continue to limit access to books and rehabilitative information like this Directory. The PARC Directory is a publication focusing on rehabilitation and social justice. It is not lawfully considered contraband material under any state or federal regulations. Any attempt to prohibit distribution of our directory is an abuse of discretion by your facility.

As an all-volunteer organization, we do our best to respond to individual letters. Please be patient in receiving a response from us. We are not a law office and cannot provide any legal advice or referrals. We no longer have the capacity to provide support over the phone nor do any individual advocacy for those who are experiencing rights violations or suffering from unfair attacks.

This year, we mourn the loss and honor the life of a foundational member of our collective: Rita 'Bo' Brown, former political prisoner and member of the George Jackson Brigade, a radical anti-racist and anti-prisons group operating in the 1970s and 80s. Bo was a highly appreciated teacher to everyone she met, from infants to elders, and kept us laughing as she educated us about life. She taught us that joy is essential to the movement, and you should never hide from who you are. She leaves a legacy to be remembered by comrades around the world.

Struggle is good and change is good. They are not easy, but isn't that what life is? Is life really about making it easy? I don't think so. I think life is living. -B♀ Brown

Our current focus is on maintaining and distributing the Directory free to all who request a copy. We do not keep a database of prisoners who write us, so make note of your last letter if you have written to us before. We are entirely funded through small donations from individuals. Much gratitude to our local and national partners, including many books-to-prisoner organizations across the country, for supporting the cost of printing this edition and sending out our directory to those who write in. This year we are partnering with 15 different books to prisoner projects across the country! We ask that you share this Directory with others, so that as many as possible may benefit from the information. If you believe the library in your prison would be willing to carry a copy or two of the PARC Directory, ask for an additional copy or provide us the address to mail it. As always - thank you for building this community with us.

In solidarity toward justice for all,

212-854-1601 · www3.law.columbia.edu/hrlr/jlm

NEW RELEASE! The 12th EDITION is here! A Jailhouse Lawyer's Manual (12th Ed, 2020, 1520 pages, $30) is a handbook of legal rights and procedures designed to inform prisoners of their rights and how use to judicial process to secure these rights on both the federal and state level, with an emphasis on New York State law. It also has published the following supplements: 1) on Louisiana state law; 2) on Texas state law; and 3) on Immigration and consular access, containing information about the immigration law consequences of criminal convictions for people who are not U.S. Citizens. Individual chapters are also available for download. For incarcerated persons, the 12th Edition of the main JLM is $30; supplements range from $15-25 by state. The Manual is not downloadable from its website, and loved ones can send you specific chaptors. For non-prisoners, the main JLM is $140 and supplements range from $50-100. Due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, please expect additional delays in delivery of the JLM. They are working as hard as they can—with a limited team—to respond to orders of the JLM as soon as possible

Battling the Administration: An Inmate's Guide to a Successful Lawsuit

Wynword Press PO Box 557 · Bonners Ferry, ID 83805

www.wynwordpress.com/shop/battling-the-administration

Battling the Administration (David J. Meister, April 2014, 566 pages, $24.95 + $5 S&H) is a self-help manual that guides readers through the complex U.S. civil court system, teaches them how to pursue a lawsuit in the face of the constraints imposed by incarceration, and enables a successful outcome for the prisoner's civil rights lawsuit. The book includes extensive case-law citations and advice on organizing, investigating and prosecuting a case. Know your civil rights and how to defend them in court. Has not been updated since 2014, so research what the lower courts have said about the Supreme Court precedents listed; the advice on preparation and writing skills are still very relevant for any prison-based litigator.

Exoneree Diaries

PO Box 180165 Haymarket Books · Chicago, IL 60618

773-583-7884 www.haymarketbooks.org

Exoneree Diaries: The Fight for Innocence, Independence, and Identity (Alison Flowers, 2016, $18.95 +$2.50 S&H hardcover; $12.56 for softcover + S&H, use coupon code EXONEREE40 for a 40% discount). Through intimate portraits of four exonerated prisoners, investigative journalist Alison Flowers explores what happens to innocent people once released from the jailhouse doors into the unknown. As she tells each exoneree's powerful story, Flowers vividly shows that release from prison, though sometimes joyous and hopeful, is not a Hollywood ending-or an ending at all. An exoneree's first unshackled steps are the beginning of a new journey full of turmoil and uncertainty. Flowers also sheds new light on the collateral damage of wrongful convictions on families and communities, challenging deeper problems of mass incarceration and the criminal justice system.

- Prisoners should have access to effective legal aid.
- Prisoners who are foreign nationals shall be allowed reasonable facilities to communicate with the diplomatic and consular representatives of the State to which they belong.
- Prisoners shall be allocated, to the extent possible, to prisons close to their homes or their places of social rehabilitation.

Education and Recreation

- Provision shall be made for the further education of all prisoners capable of profiting thereby.
- So far as practicable, the education of prisoners shall be integrated with the educational system of the country so that after their release they may continue their education without difficulty

Exercise and Sport

- Every prisoner who is not employed in outdoor work shall have at least one hour of suitable exercise in the open air daily if the weather permits.
- · Young prisoners and others of suitable age and physique are to receive physical and recreational training during the period of exercise.

Food

• Every prisoner shall be provided by the prison administration at the usual hours with food of nutritional value adequate for health and strength, of wholesome quality and well prepared and served.

Guiding Principles

• The duty of society does not end with a prisoner's release. There should, therefore, be governmental or private agencies capable of lending the released prisoner efficient aftercare directed towards the lessening of prejudice against him or her and towards his or her social rehabilitation.

Health-Care Services

- Prisoners should enjoy the same standards of health care that are available in the community, and should have access to necessary health-care services free of charge without discrimination on the grounds of their legal status.
- All prisons shall ensure prompt access to medical attention in urgent cases. Prisoners who require specialized treatment or surgery shall be transferred to specialized institutions or to civil hospitals.
- · Clinical decisions may only be taken by the responsible health-care professionals and may not be overruled or ignored by non-medical prison staff.
- In women's prisons, there shall be special accommodation for all necessary prenatal and postnatal care and treatment. Arrangements shall be made wherever practicable for children to be born in a hospital outside the prison.

Information to and Complaints by Prisoners

- Every prisoner shall be allowed to make a request or complaint regarding his or her treatment, without censorship as to substance, to the central prison administration and to the judicial or other competent authorities, including those vested with reviewing or remedial power.
- Every request or complaint shall be promptly dealt with and replied to without delay.
- A prisoner must not be exposed to any risk of retaliation, intimidation or other negative consequences as a result of having submitted a request or complaint.
- Allegations of torture or other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment of prisoners shall be dealt with immediately and shall result in a prompt and impartial investigation conducted by an independent national authority.

Institutional Personnel

• All prison staff shall possess an adequate standard of education and shall be given the ability and means to carry out their duties in a professional manner. Instruments of Restraint

• The use of chains, irons or other instruments of restraint which are inherently degrading or painful shall be prohibited.

Restrictions, Discipline and Sanctions

• In no circumstances may restrictions or disciplinary sanctions amount to torture or other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment. The following practices, in particular, shall be prohibited: Indefinite solitary confinement; Prolonged solitary confinement; Placement of a prisoner in a dark or constantly lit cell; Corporal punishment or the reduction of a prisoner's diet or drinking water; Collective punishment.

Searches of Prisoners and Cells

- Searches shall be conducted in a manner that is respectful of the inherent human dignity and privacy of the individual being searched, as well as the principles of proportionality, legality and necessity.
- Searches shall not be used to harass, intimidate or unnecessarily intrude upon a prisoner's privacy.
- Prisoners shall have access to and be allowed to keep in their possession without access by the prison administration, documents relating to their legal proceedings.
